WAILUKU WILL HAVE NEW $12,000 CHURCH

(Special to the Bulletin.)
Wailuku, Maui, June 26. — The Committee of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Protestant Episcopal, of Wailuku held a meeting at the office of the Wailuku National Bank Thursday evening for the purpose of discussing ways and means for the erection of a new stone church for Wailuku.

It was voted to ask Mr. Dowdle to furnish plans and specifications. It is the intention of the committee to put up a stone church to cost about $12,000, more or less. The building funds has about $1,000 on hand. This amount was raised by the Ladies' Guild, and it is expected that the ladies would continue their good work as they have done in the past, to raise the necessary revenue for this new edifice, which will not only be a credit to Wailuku, but an ornament to the County Seat. Almost the whole of Wailuku would like to see this building rise up in the near future. The church committee consists of Rev. Canon W. Ault, chairman; J. N. S. Williams, C. D. Lufkin, E. H. Hart, L. M. Baldwin, and J. N. K. Keola, members.
